GIRLS HORSE CAMP!!

Hey Girls! Here we go again! Another season will soon be here and it'll be time to saddle up and ride!

Our goal for 2012 is to get even more ride time! We're going to be doing more group events such as, barrel practice, spoon and egg riding, pole bending practice and proper showing techniques. As always, you'll get your horse out of the pasture every day, you'll do the grooming, you'll do the saddling, you'll do the bridling then you'll do the riding!

Your day will start with a very special "alarm clock"! After breakfast you will get your own horse to love and learn on. After riding, your day will be filled with horse craft time, games, secret pasture picnics, hayrides and of course an evening campfire to share your stories from the day.

As you can see, we're all about the horses here, that's why Wild West is the best!

3 HOURS OF RIDING DAILY!!

The horses are here! Will you be?
